MMA BIG IDEAS

You turn money on like a faucet

&

Selling is as transformational as your coaching

WHAT IF IT'S TRUE???

Belief to Conviction

HOW TO TURN YOUR THOUGHTS INTO KNOWINGS

1.

ID your goal

What do you want to create over the next two weeks? Go with your gut and what sounds fun - with a dash of scary. Don't try to talk yourself out of it because it doesn't "Make sense." That's the whole point!

2.

Set a timeline

We have 2 WEEKS together. We don't need time to create results, but also...that's SO MUCH TIME!!!! 2 weeks from now everything could be different if you decide it will be.

3.

What if...

When you open up to imagination, possibility and "fuck around and find out" energy, what might you create? You're the main character and we're watching your epic story unfold, popcorn in hand...

Belief to Conviction

HOW TO TURN YOUR THOUGHTS INTO KNOWINGS

4.

Lights, Camera, ACTION

Time to make moves - AKA sell! You've got opinions, stories and musings to share. And people want to hear them. From Instagram to the grocery store checkout line, START TALKING!

5.

It's working!

All that beautiful action is going to create BEAUTIFUL results - and quickly. Buuuuuuuut you have to choose to see those results as evidence that things are working. This is your new habit. This is your new standard.

A woman with short brown hair, seen from behind, stands on a rooftop. She is wearing a long, flowing white dress with puffed sleeves. Her arms are raised, and her hands are resting on the dark frame of a large window or glass railing. She is looking out over a dense city skyline with various skyscrapers and buildings under a hazy sky. The scene is captured in a cinematic style with soft lighting.
